[Associated Press Cable] NEW YORK, July 29 .- Police Lieutenant Charles Becker was arrested today on a bench warrant issued immediately following the report of the grand jury investigating the recent murder of Herman Rosenthal, gambler, who was preparing to testify concerning the activities of the gamblers of this city and the protections they received from the police. Lieutenant Becker was, in the confession made by Rosenthal just before he was shot down in the street, his silent partner, providing the police protection and receiving a regular share of the proceeds of the gambling joint conducted by the murdered man. Testimony brought out before the grand jury tends to show that Becker learned of the contemplated confession and "give away" and plotted to REAL ESTATE TRANSACTIONS. have Rosenthal killed before he could tell the authorities all that he knew.
